

Interviews regarding politics

Gender, age.	Country	Do you feel that the EU treats you fair?	Is it – in your opinion – good for your country to stay in the EU?	How can we make the European Union function better?	What are the three most important tasks for the European Union?
Female, 24.	Germany.	As a European I am treated very well. I have a lot of opportunities, I go to second school, I get money, I can travel free etc. My boyfriend, African refugee, staying in Germany for the 4.th year, can go nowhere, has no rights, does not get any money.	Yes! It is good for trade, good possibilities for the individual. We have free movement.	More integration of laws. The living conditions are not equal in Germany and in Romania as an example. The Romanians should have the same possibilities for each individual, like unemployment benefit.	Integration - refugees and other people. People from outside EU, and from poor European countries. Democracy/ human rights. Environment , plastic population, factory farming, greenhouse effect etc.
Male, 24.	Germany.	Yes, we do not have to pay much to participate in this camp.	Yes! Because the countries should stay together, we have to support the countries that does not function so well as Germany.	Make EU more attractive to the individual.	Refugees - to welcome and to integrate. Democracy. Education.
Male, 25.	Germany.	Yes. In the EU we are relatively free, we can go to other countries without a passport etc.	Stay! The more countries the better.	More of this kind of projects. All schools need partnerschools to exchange. The meeting of people from different countries at the same age.	Democracy. Human rights. Helping each other , fix in economic crises.
Female, 20.	Germany.	I do not feel any influence from the EU, because I live in Germany.	Stay! We can travel between the countries. It is good to stay in times of crises. Good for the politicians to have the EU - but I don't feel it that much.	Maybe what we do here, that people from different countries meet and talk about problems, traditions, getting to know more and understand more about the other countries.	Human rights - Europe as a role model. Refugees - they need our help. Health in 2 ways: social security and to join the resources in science to fix cure cancer.

Male, 25.	Germany.	EU has had a good influence on my living conditions.	Important that we stay together and that the countries stay together.	EU should be better to look at the needs of each individual.	Human rights. Economic crises. Refugees.
Male, 28.	Greece.	Yes!We work as a team here (on the camp).EU treats Greece in a fair way.	Stay!It is good for Greece to stay in the EU.	In EU we should support each other no matter where we come from and accept people no matter who they are.	Human rights. Health and care to everybody social security, help people in need. Unemployment - more opportunities for unemployed people to work.
Female, 18.	Denmark and Greece.	Yes, I feel that the Europeans are my family.	Yes!	EU should look into the problems of each country and help to solve the problems that are most important for each specific country. EU should tak more responsibility for problems like economy, unemployment, but they should not interfere in things like abortion.	Economic crises Unemployment - some jobs require demand too high skills, like waiters, supportive teachers in schools, volunteer jobs. EU could lower the demands of qualifications. Health/ social security.
